

HOIUW Jeopardy

History

- Q: The campaign chairs for the 2009 campaign.
- Q: The year the Heart of Illinois was founded.
- Q: A new program started in 2009 for young leaders in Central Illinois who are ready to ignite their inner philanthropic spirit and engage in meaningful activities to face the needs of our community.
- Q: The number of social service and health agencies that the Heart of Illinois United Way funds.
- Q: The total campaign money raised for 2009.

HOIUW People

- Q: The 2010 Campaign Chairs.
- Q: Individuals and families that contribute $500 to $999 annually.
- Q: Mark and Renee Spenny are the chairs of these community leaders who help make the annual campaign a success.
- Q: Chair of Generation United.
- Q: Chair of the Success By 6 Committee.

Funded Agencies

- Q: This group's mission is to empower those touched by cancer to live life to the fullest. They are a community-based organization working with medical professionals to support the mind, body and spirit of those they serve.
- Q: Their mission is to give children a childhood and future by protecting them, teaching them, and healing them, and by building strong communities and loving families.
- Q: This agency provides services for children and adults with developmental delays and disabilities. Some of the services include Pediatric Therapy, Autism Program, LaHood Center for Cerebral Palsy, Recreational Programming and more.
- Q: Their mission is people advocating for respect and consideration of individuals with developmental disabilities with services such as: Developmental Therapy Group, Individual Developmental Therapy, Developmental Assessments, Support Services and Respite Care.

Q: This agency is dedicated to providing services to enable many people to live independent, fulfilling, safe, and healthy lives at home. Services include transportation, home-delivered and congregate meals, food distribution program, convalescent equipment loans, and do-it-yourself group meetings.

Money

Q: (Your company's monetary or participation goal).

Q: A grant totaling $250,000 which offers a dollar-for-dollar match for any new or increased giving in the areas of corporate or individual gifts and employee campaigns.

Q: This group raised $2,536,040 last year.

Q: The amount of every dollar that is raised is put directly back to the service and programs of this community.

Q: The United Way provides this amount in order to support a variety of programs geared towards building self-reliance including affordable housing, independent living, job training and education.

Trivia

Q: This amount of money has been raised for health and human service programs over the 87 years the United Way has been in existence.

Q: Last September on the Day of Caring, the United Way sponsored a community-wide food drive that collected this many pounds of food for local food pantries.

Q: Youth, families, self-reliance and health.

Q: Putnam, Stark, Marshall, Woodford, Peoria, and Tazewell.

Q: To increase the organized capacity of the people in Central Illinois to care for one another.